U.S. Probation Officer Action:

At this point in time, the offender remains under the close scrutiny of the undersigned officer. He has been randomly tested for substance abuse since the aforementioned positive urinalysis test, and found to have been testing free of any ongoing substance abuse. Additionally, he has been instructed to complete a Lifeskills Book, which will provide the offender with additional insight on the perils of substance abuse. We believe that an increase in the frequency of testing, as well as requiring the offender to complete the workbook, shall suffice as a sanction at this time. We will inform the Court immediately of any additional information as the circumstances arise, and/or any filing of criminal charges against the offender. We would request that the Court take no action at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Carolyn S. Johnson
U.S. Probation Officer
